

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
František Šístek
Chapter 1. The ‘Turkish Threat’ and Early Modern Central Europe: Czech Reflections	28
Ladislav Hladký and Petr Stehlik
Chapter 2. The Muslims of Bosnia and Herzegovina between Millet and Nation	42
Božidar Jezernik
Chapter 3. Ambivalent Perceptions: Austria–Hungary, Bosnian Muslims and the Occupation Campaign in Bosnia and Herzegovina (1878)	63
Martin Gabriel
Chapter 4. Sleeping Beauty’s Awakening: Habsburg Colonialism in Bosnia and Herzegovina, 1878–1918	76
Clemens Ruthner
Chapter 5. The Portrayal of Muslims in Austro-Hungarian State Primary School Textbooks for Bosnia and Herzegovina	92
Oliver Pejić
Chapter 6. Towards Secularity: Autonomy and Modernization of Bosnian Islamic Institutions under Austro-Hungarian Administration	104
Zora Hesová
Chapter 7. Under the Slavic Crescent: Representations of Bosnian Muslims in Czech Literature, Travelogues and Memoirs, 1878–1918	121
František Šístek

Chapter 8.	Divided Identities in the Bosnian Narratives of Vjenceslav Novak and Rebecca West Charles Sabatos	145
Chapter 9.	Austronostalgia and Bosnian Muslims in the Work of Croatian Anthropologist Vera Stein Erlich Bojan Baskar	155
Chapter 10.	The Serbian Proverb Poturica gori od Turčina (A Turk-Convert Is Worse Than a Turk): Stigmatizer and Figure of Speech Marija Mandić	170
Chapter 11.	From Brothers to Others? Changing Images of Bosnian Muslims in (Post-)Yugoslav Slovenia Alenka Bartulović	194
Chapter 12.	Exploring Religious Views among Young People of Bosnian Muslim Origin in Berlin Aldina Čemernica	214
Chapter 13.	The West, the Balkans and the In-Between: Bosnian Muslims Representing a European Islam Merima Šehagić	225
Conclusion	František Šístek	236
Index		243